Your Guide to The Inogen One G2 Portable Oxygen Concentrator
High-Flow and Lightweight: The Inogen One G2 is an exceptional portable oxygen concentrator for patients that require pulse flow settings 1 – 6, but what makes this concentrator so popular among current patients is its ability to offer a full range of exceptional features while still managing to weigh 7lbs.

Inogen One G2 Portable Oxygen Concentrator
Hi Alanator, I just did an on line query and it does appear Inogen has replaced the G2 with the G3. Your supplier obviously will continue to service the G2 as this is required by Medicare. Separately, the 1 to 3, 1 to 6 #'s on the small portable pulse units do NOT equate with liters per minute (lpm) .
